CONFERENCES:

YOUTH WORKER CONFERENCE

YWC has been running regional training events for youth workers since 2014 with the goal of creating affordable and accessible events that encourage and equip youth workers to better disciple the students in their ministries. The main event takes place from Friday evening through to Saturday before supper. This is where our team can gather to sharpen our skills, experience community amongst like minded leaders, and be encouraged that the work of investing into the next generation is a worthwhile endeavour.

RISE YOUTH WORSHIP CONFERENCE

Rise, a youth worship conference, emerges as a catalyst for spiritual transformation and musical excellence among the next generation of worshippers. Rooted in the core belief that effective worship springs from a profound personal connection with Jesus, Rise seeks to inspire and equip youth worship teams. Through impactful keynote sessions, intimate worship gatherings, and practical workshops led by experienced leaders. More than just a training ground for musical proficiency, Rise is a sacred space where the hearts of young worshippers are ignited with a fervent desire to be genuine worshippers of Jesus. The goal is to look past the superficial aspects of performance and cultivate a deep, authentic relationship with Christ, enabling youth worship teams to lead with passion, sincerity, and an unwavering commitment to glorify God through their musical expressions of faith.
